LIBRARY
OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS
SUPPLEMENT
I
(1914—16)

MADRAS:
PRINTED AT THE S.P.C K. PRESS, VEPERY

PREFATORY NOTES.

THE general plan, upon which the Author Catalogue, 1914, was based, remains in force.

The supplement contains all the books and periodicals added to the Library since the publication of the main Author Catalogue to the end of 1916.

Cross references under the names of authors to their lives, memoirs, criticisms on their works, etc., referred to in the subject-contents of the works of other authors in this catalogue, are given (e.g., Burke, Chaucer, Newton, Shakespeare, etc.). Similarly cross references to the historic persons, occurring in the subject-contents, are grouped under their names (e.g., Buddha, Henry VIII, Napolcon, etc.).

Works, belonging to certain series (e.g., Foreign Statesmen, Gibb Memorial Series, Heroes of the Nations, Tagore Law Lectures, etc.), are as usual catalogued under the names of authors; and cross references to them are grouped under the names of respective series.

The entries in the main catalogue under Old English Plays, have been incorporated with those in this catalogue under the same heading, the whole series being now rearranged alphabetically.

In the case of certain periodicals, (e.g., Hindu Law Texts, Indian Thought, etc.), the periodic issues of these, containing portions of several works, have been split up, bound and catalogued as separate works, as each volume is completed.

Abbreviations used in this supplement are found in the main catalogue.

The appendix contains those works which have been purchased since the bulk of the matter was sent to the press.

A General Reference Catalogue, embodying the entries in the main and the supplementary catalogues is maintained in the Library for consultation.
